

Causes of World War One: Gap Fill ExerciseWorksheet to accompany the game at www.activehistory.co.ukInstructions: Fill in the blank space in each row as you progress through the simulation.

Key word / phrase	Definition
	Territory taken from France by Germany in 1871
	Line of defences built by France on her German border after 1871
	The Alliance between Germany, Austria and Italy
	The area of Europe which Turkey was losing control of Nickname of Turkey before World War One
	What Germany feared after the Franco-Russian alliance of 1894
	The "Friendly Understanding" between Britain and France (1904)
	German war plan of 1905 designed to cope with a war on two fronts
	Neutral country to be invaded under the German war plan
	Germany opposed French attempts to control this African state
	City where Wilhelm II promised support for Moroccan independence
	Germany was humiliated by France and Britain at this Conference
	The new battleship launched by Britain in 1906
	The alliance between Russia, Britain and France signed in 1907
	What the Kaiser described the British as in 1908
	British newspaper which interviewed the Kaiser in 1908
	Balkan territory seized by Austria in 1908
	War which left Russia desperate to regain her prestige
	German warship sent to Agadir in the Moroccan Crisis of 1911
	Balkan state which doubled in size in 1912, alarming Austria
	Austrian Archduke assassinated by Serbian terrorists in 1914
	Serbian terrorist organisation which assassinated Franz Ferdinand
	Germany's decision to give Austria unconditional support
	The list of demands presented by Austria to Serbia
	The process of getting an army ready for war
	Ruler of Russia in 1914
	The correspondence between Germany and Russia in July 1914