

Year 12 are now investigating
"How was our everyday world revolutionised by World War
One?"

Although World War One produced bloodshed and horror on an unimaginable scale, it also acted as the catalyst for positive changes in society too.

The rights of women were improved; politics was revolutionised; attitudes towards religion were transformed; the world we live in today was forged.

"History is about turning points that transform the modern world"
